FAITH IN ACTION GROUP TO DISCUSS AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

DAYTON, Dec. 18, 1989--Faith in Action, an interfaith fellowship of physically disabled adults, will meet to discuss upcoming legislation concerning the rights of disabled persons on Sunday, Jan. 7 from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. at South Park United Methodist Church, 140 Stonemill Road.

Kevin Leonard, disability specialist for the human relations council of the City of Dayton, will be the guest speaker at the meeting. Leonard, a consumer representative for people with disabilities in the Dayton area, will discuss the "Americans with Disabilities Act," legislation due to come before the U.S. House of Representatives for a vote in January.

The meeting will include a devotional, a social period and a short business session. Refreshments will be hot apple cider and doughnuts. Each member is asked to bring one or more small toilet articles for donation to St. Vincent's Hotel for the Homeless.

The Faith in Action community is sponsored by the University of Dayton Ministry with Handicapped People, a program of the office for Ministry and Religious Education Services (MORES). For more information, contact Cathy Schneider at (513) 229-4325.
